STINGERS

Soccer players put their names on the All-Canadians list

Three Concordia men's soccer players have been named All-Canadians. Fabien Thomas was named first team All-Canadian and Ammar Badawieh and Stefan Takac were named to the second team.

Thomas, an engineering student from Paris, France is in his first year at Concordia but in his fifth year of studies. As a midfielder the rookie doesn't get many scoring opportunities but he brought much support and talent to the Stinger team. In France, the 22 year-old played as a reserve for Estac Troyes, a professional team.

Takac is also a rookie on the Stinger team coming from Falkoping, Sweden. He studies commerce at Concordia and is in his third year of studies. The 23 year-old scored 7 goals this season. He played the position of midfielder.

Badawieh, from Amman, Jordan is the veteran to this team of three. The forward is in his fourth year at Concordia, and as a stinger. The 22 year-old is studying civil engineering. He scored seven goals this season and on one occasion was Concordia athlete of the week and QSSF athlete of the week this season.

Figsby named all-star team head coach

The Concordia's men's hockey coach, Kevin Figsby, has been named head coach of the OUA All-star team. The team will play the junior national team on December 17 and 18. Last season, Figsby served as an assistant coach on the team.

This year, he will be assisted by Ed Kirsten from Ryerson University and Kelly Nobes from the Royal Military College.

Figsby has been the head coach of Stingers since January of 2000. Last year he brought his team to a second place standing in the OUA east with 10-9-5 record.

He has 15 years of coaching experience at the provincial, national and international levels. Figsby is known best for his work with the Lac St. Louis Midget AAA Lions. He was also the head coach of the Quebec under-17 team that won a bronze medal at the world championships in 1995 and was a guest coach with the Canadian national senior team at evaluation camps in 1995 and 1997. In addition, he was co-coach at John Abbott College from 1985-1992.

The All-star game will be played at the Toronto Beatrice Ice Gardens.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Leanne Martell of the women's hockey team and Louis Vigneault of the men's basketball team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending November 11.

Martell, a fourth year forward, had two goals for Concordia in a 5-1 victory over the UQTR Patriotes. The 23 year-old helped Concordia secured a tie for first place in the league. Martell, a native of Trenton, Nova Scotia, studies Leisure Sciences at Concordia.

Vigneault, a first year, scored 23 points in two games over the weekend. The 22 year-old scored 11 points on Friday in a 81-65 win over the Johnson State Badgers and he scored 12 points in a 88-73 loss to the Clarkson Golden Knights. Vigneault, a native of Verdun, Que., is in the digital image and sound program at Concordia.
